Serving the Navajo (Diné) in northwestern New Mexico, St. Bonaventure Indian Mission and School provides assistance to those in poverty as well as tuition-free Catholic schooling to local children. Donors to the Native American Children Master Premium list are the premium responders to St. Bonaventure Indian Mission and School. Through their donations, SBIS can continue to provide love, support, and hope for a better life to local impoverished Navajo.

These premium donors make excellent targets for Native American, child advocacy, religious, and education focused organizations.
